DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1) The listing of references in the specification is not a proper information disclosure statement. 37 CFR 1.98(b) requires a list of all patents, publications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office, and MPEP § 609.04(a) states, "the list may not be incorporated into the specification but must be submitted in a separate paper." Therefore, unless the references have been cited by the examiner on form PTO-892, they have not been considered.

The prior art references recited in the Specification are to be listed on form PTO-1449, and copies of recited foreign art references are to be submitted for review.

Specification

- 2) The Abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words.
- 3) "(Figure 2)" is to be removed from the Abstract.
- 4) Figure 5 is not listed or briefly described on Pgs. 3-4 of the Specification.
- 5) In Figure 5, the second part of a drying section is designated as 34.2, however, the second part of a drying section is designated as 34.1 in claim 2, and also as 34.1 in the Specification on Pg. 7, line 37.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6) Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential structural cooperative relationships of elements, such omission amounting to a gap between the necessary structural connections. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted structural cooperative relationships are: the structural cooperation between an applicator and press section and/or impingement dryer.

A broad range or limitation together with a narrow range or limitation that falls within the broad range or limitation (in the same claim) is considered indefinite, since the resulting claim does not clearly set forth the metes and bounds of the patent protection desired. See MPEP § 2173.05(c). Note the explanation given by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences in Ex parte Wu, 10 USPQ2d 2031, 2033 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1989), as to where broad language is followed by "such as" and then narrow language. The Board stated that this can render a claim indefinite by raising a question or doubt as to whether the feature introduced by such language is (a) merely exemplary of the remainder of the claim, and therefore not required, or (b) a required feature of the claims. Note also, for example, the decisions of Ex parte Steigewald, 131

USPQ 74 (Bd. App. 1961); Ex parte Hall, 83 USPQ 38 (Bd. App. 1948); and Ex parte Hasche, 86 USPQ 481 (Bd. App. 1949).

In the present instance, claim 3 recites the broad recitation “more than 1500 m/min”, and the claim also recites “more than 1700m/min”, and the claim also recites “more than 1800m/min”, which are narrower statements of the range/limitation.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7) Claims 1-3, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ahonen (6,413,317).

Claims 1-2: Ahonen discloses a paper machine. The paper machine has a press section 300 that includes a press nip followed by impingement dryer 450, a coating or film applicator section 500 followed by after-dryer 600 (Abstract and col. 4, line 44 to col. 5, line 59, and Figure 1). Color coating is disclosed (cols. 1-3), details of coating are shown in Figures 6-7. In view that neither the claims nor the Specification specify a distance, the Ahonen impingement dryer 450 location is considered immediately after the press section 300.

Claim 3: machine speed is a method operation and not a structural feature differentiating over the cited prior art.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8) Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ahonen. Ahonen is applied as above for claim 1, Ahonen does not disclose coating viscosity, however, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time the invention was made that the coating viscosity would be of any value including in the claimed range in order to obtain desired product results.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422

F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

9) Claims 1-4 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 18-41 of copending Application No. 10/596,071. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both the present application and the copending application recite a paper machine for the production of a paper that includes a press nip in a press section, an impingement dryer after the press section and an applicator.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.
